S. 54 Nr. 16

Maybe his wife was worried about Chris. Nobody knew what it was like in New Orleans after the hurricane. It also was dangerous to return to New Orleans because nearly everything was destroyed or looted. And a lot of people died in their houses. But maybe his family was a bit proud of Chris, because he wanted to work as a journalist there and he wanted to tell the world about the situation in New Orleans.

S. 54 Nr. 17

If a hurricane came... I would definitely take my family with me. Maybe I would take some family souvenirs, photos of my children with me if my house would be destroyed. Well of course I would take my electrical gadgets with me like cell phone and lap top. It would be important to have some drink and food with you and money and your credit card.
